Chief Clerk of the Commission
Public Service Commission of South Carolina
Post Office Drawer 11649
Columbia, South Carolina 29211

Re: Non-Docketed Item

Dear Mr. Terreni:

Yesterday, AT&T Corp. filed the attached Application with the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") to discontinue an interconnected voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) service, known as AT&T Call Vantage, in South Carolina and various other states. Although no action by the Public Service Commission of South Carolina ("the Commission") is required, AT&T Corp. complied with the FCC's Rules by sending a copy of the Application, via first class U.S. Mail, to the Commission. See Application at 2.

In an abundance of caution, AT&T South Carolina respectfully requests that the Commission post this letter and the attached Application on its publicly-available website.

Sincerely,

In the Matter of Section 63.71 Application of

AT&T Corp.

For Authority Pursuant to Section 63.71 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.17,
To Discontinue the Provision of Service

AT&T Corp. (AT&T) requests authority under Section 63.71 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §63.71, to discontinue an interconnected voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) service, known as AT&T CallVantage. As required by Section 63.71(a) and (b) of the Commission's rules, AT&T provides the following information in support of its discontinuance request:¹

AT&T Corp., 2000 W. AT&T Center Drive, Hoffman Estates, IL, 60196

AT&T intends to begin discontinuing service to customers on or after October 20, 2009, subject to Commission authorization to discontinue the service pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 63.71(c).

¹ The Commission recently subjected interconnected VoIP providers to the section 63.71 discontinuance requirements currently applicable to non-dominant telecommunications carriers. See IP-Enabled Services, WC Docket No. 04-36, Report and Order, FCC 09-40 (released May 13, 2009) (VoIP Discontinuance Order or Order). The Order will become effective 30 days after publication in the Federal Register, Order ¶ 18, which has not yet occurred. In addition, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act, certain of the requirements adopted in the Order will become effective after approval by the Office of Management and Budget, Order ¶ 18, which also has not yet happened. Because both of these events may occur in the coming weeks or months while AT&T is in the process of discontinuing CallVantage service, AT&T is submitting this application for discontinuance authority now to ensure a smooth discontinuance process for our customers and to ensure full compliance with the Commission's discontinuance requirements for interconnected VoIP service whenever they become effective.

Points of Geographic Areas of Service Affected (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(a)(3), b(2)):

AT&T will discontinue CallVantage service in all U.S. states and the District of Columbia.

Brief Description of Type of Service Affected (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.71(a)(3), b(2)):

AT&T CallVantage service is an interconnected VoIP service. See 47 C.F.R. § 9.3 (defining interconnected VoIP service). The discontinuance of AT&T CallVantage service does not adversely affect the public convenience and necessity because existing customers have a wide range of alternative voice services from which to choose, including other non-facilities-based VoIP services available over their existing broadband connections,² and, depending on their location, traditional wireline voice services, facilities-based VoIP services (e.g., cable or telco VoIP), and wireless voice services.

Brief Description of the Dates and Methods of Notice to All Affected Customers (47 C.F.R. § 63.71(b)(3)):

AT&T notified its customers by letter sent via US Mail on July 24, 2009. Copies of the customer notification are appended hereto as Attachment A (mailed to customers in regions where AT&T offers wireline local voice services) and Attachment B (mailed to customers in regions where AT&T does not offer wireline local voice services).

Copies of this Application are being sent, first class U.S. Mail, to the public utilities commission and governor of each state in which discontinuance is proposed and also to the Special Assistant for Telecommunications to the Secretary of Defense, as required by Section 63.71(a) of the Commission's rules.

Regulatory Classification of Carrier (47 C.F.R. § 63.71(b)(4)):

² Like other "over-the-top" VoIP services, AT&T CallVantage service requires the customer to obtain a broadband Internet access connection in order to use the service.

In its provision of CallVantage service, AT&T is considered a provider of interconnected VoIP service and, consistent with the Commission's VoIP Discontinuance Order, is subject to the same discontinuance requirements applicable to non-dominant carriers.

Questions about this application may be addressed to Toni Acton, AT&T Services, Inc., Director – Federal Regulatory, 1120 20th Street, NW, Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20036, (202) 457-3039.

Conclusion:

The public convenience and necessity will not be adversely affected by the discontinuance of AT&T CallVantage service because there are alternative service arrangements available to existing customers. AT&T respectfully requests that the Commission approve its Section 63.71 Application to discontinue AT&T CallVantage service.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jack S. Zinman

RE: Your AT&T CallVantage® service - account number 123-456-7890

Dear [Customer Name],

Previously we notified you that AT&T CallVantage® service, provided by AT&T Corp., is being discontinued. As promised, we are writing to let you know that you will need to take action to transfer your service to another AT&T service or to a new service provider. All AT&T CallVantage services nationwide will be discontinued on or after October 20, 2009. You should take action to make alternative arrangements for your voice communications to avoid possible loss of your service, including the ability to reach 911 emergency services for all lines on this account.

We understand that this type of change is difficult, and we apologize for any inconvenience this change may cause. Please know that we value you as a customer and would like to continue to be your voice communications provider. AT&T does offer options to meet your voice communications needs including Wireless from AT&T, which is available nationwide. In addition, you may also consider AT&T U-verseSM Voice service, or traditional voice service, which may be available in your AT&T local service area. We encourage you to visit att.com or uverse.att.com to learn more about AT&T services and special offers that may be available in your area. If for some reason we are unable to meet your communication needs, you may also wish to consider other service providers in your area that provide voice communications.

Important notes about moving your service to AT&T or another service provider:

- AT&T CallVantage will be discontinued on or after October 20, 2009.
- You must place your order for new service to AT&T or another service provider by September 29, 2009 to ensure sufficient time for activation of your new service, including the transfer of your AT&T CallVantage number to your new service.
- You can move primary line, second line, and Softphone line numbers to a new service.
- Individual service features, such as the contents of your call logs, voice-mail greetings and messages, phone book lists, and Simple Reach and "sub account" numbers, cannot be moved to a new service.
- AT&T CallVantage billing will stop the day your number is moved to your new service. Please allow up to 3 billing cycles for all final charges, credits, and payments to post to your credit card.

What Do I Need to Do Now? Please take a minute to review the following information which will help you transition to a new voice communications service:

- 1) Visit att.com or uverse.att.com to review the AT&T services and special offers available in your area and determine what service best suits your needs.
- 2) To move your AT&T CallVantage number to another AT&T service:
 - ▶ Contact AT&T to place your order for the new service that best suits your needs and is available in your area. Once your order for service is accepted, AT&T will contact AT&T CallVantage service representatives to move your AT&T CallVantage number to your new service. You do not need to personally contact AT&T CallVantage service representatives regarding the move.

- 3) To move your AT&T CallVantage number to a new service provider other than AT&T:
 - ▶ Contact your alternate service provider to place your order. Once they accept your order for service they will contact AT&T CallVantage service representatives to move your AT&T CallVantage number to your new service. You do not need to personally contact AT&T CallVantage service representatives regarding the move.
- 4) To disconnect your AT&T CallVantage service and telephone number(s) without moving to another service/service provider:
 - ▶ Visit <https://www.callvantage.att.com/disconnect> and request a disconnect order. You will receive an e-mail confirmation after your account is disconnected.
 - ▶ Your disconnect request will be effective within 5 business days of your request. You will be billed up to the disconnect date.
 - ▶ Please allow up to 3 billing cycles for all final charges, credits, and payments to post to your credit card.

FCC Required Notice:

The FCC will normally authorize this proposed discontinuance of service unless it is shown that customers would be unable to receive service or a reasonable substitute from another carrier or that the public convenience and necessity is otherwise adversely affected. If you wish to object, you should file your comments as soon as possible, but no later than 15 days after the Commission releases public notice of the proposed discontinuance. Address them to the Federal Communications Commission, Wireline Competition Bureau, Competition Policy Division, Washington, DC 20554, and include in your comments a reference to the Sec. 63.71 Application of AT&T Corp. Comments should include specific information about the impact of this proposed discontinuance upon you or your company, including any inability to acquire reasonable substitute service.

On behalf of AT&T, the AT&T CallVantage service team wants to thank you for the opportunity to be your voice communications service provider, and we sincerely hope to continue serving your communications needs.
